NEW QUESTION: 2

Which is correct? At version 8.9, the IBM Text Chart product _____.

- A. Both A and B
- B. Supports software license management (SLM) authorization
- C. No longer supports or requires authorization mechanisms
- D. Supports dongle authorization

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION: 3

A customer needs to provision different applications on the same operating system for virtual machines in their Cloud environment. Which application can be used to create policies for application deployment that can be easily exchanged?

- A. VMware templates
- B. HP Insight Control server deployment
- C. HP Server Automation
- D. HP Matrix OE VMM templates

Answer: C

Explanation:

Server Automation manages servers running Windows, Linux, VMware, and various UNIX operating systems, including HP-UX 11i, across hardware from a multitude of vendors. Its main features when managing a BladeSystem environment are automatic baselining of the hardware and software configurations, policy-based provisioning, and application-level auditing and remediation.

Incorrect: Not D: Insight Control management software makes management of BladeSystem servers especially simple, automating steps in every hardware management process—from provisioning to recovery.

Reference: HP Server Automation complements HP Insight Control to manage HP BladeSystem servers
