NEW QUESTION: 2 Consider the following commands: What is displayed when this sequence of commands is executed using the bash shell?
A. Hello, world
B. `cat: cannot open file1`
`Hello, World`
C. `bash: syntax error near unexpected token '&&'`
D. `cat: cannot open file1`
`Hello, world`
Answer: D

Explanation: First line (`rm file1`) deletes/removes file1. Second line captures the text into file2. The first part of line 3 (`cat file1`) fails as the file1 does not exist. The `&&` (AND) operator will ensure that the third line fails. The result of line 3 will be the result of first part of line 3 (`cat file1`).
Note: `cat` - concatenate files and print on the standard output
Note #1: A list is a sequence of one or more pipelines separated by one of the operators `'|'`, `'&&'`, `'&&&'`, or `'||'`, and optionally terminated by one of `'|'`, `'&&'`, or a newline. Of these list operators, `'&&&'` and `'||'` have equal precedence, followed by `'|'` and `'&&'`, which have equal precedence. AND and OR lists are sequences of one or more pipelines separated by the control operators `'&&&'` and `'||'`, respectively. AND and OR lists are executed with left associativity. An AND list has the form `command1 && command2` `command2` is executed if, and only if, `command1` returns an exit status of zero. An OR list has the form `command1 || command2` `command2` is executed if, and only if, `command1` returns a non-zero exit status. The return status of AND and OR lists is the exit status of the last command executed in the list.
Note #2 (on exit status): Zero means command executed successfully, if exit status returns non-zero value then your command failed to execute.
